WE NOMINATE

Arthur Fay Sueltz, whose "Cinderella success story" as an intercollegiate coach constitutes one of the most appealing chapters of recent years in Princeton sports history. Some 33 months after he wandered into the Boathouse—"just for a look-see"—this 24-year old senior at Princeton Theological Seminary is retiring from coaching ranks with a remarkable string of successes behind him. Last Saturday his Princeton varsity 150-pound crew capped an undefeated season by carrying off the national lightweight rowing title and in the process established a new all-time record for Carnegie Lake.

In fact, Sueltz-coached crews, in the weekend's eight-college regatta, came within feel of accomplishing a "triple" veteran rowing coaches live for: a sweep of all honors in a championship regatta. The Tiger freshmen, twice beaten earlier in the spring, set a new freshman mark for the Princeton Henley course in scoring their triumph, while the Princeton junior varsity 150-pounders won their heat and finished a "good second" in the third finale. And, to add to the day's tensions, Sueltz throughout the races was concerned about matters infinitely more important than first place, for his first child, 7-pound, 10-ounce Steven, arrived at Princeton Hospital the following afternoon.

A graduate of the University of California, where he majored in Religion and Philosophy and "made" the varsity boat following three years of the toughest kind of competition, Sueltz enrolled here at the Seminary in the fall of 1950. As a diversion, and because the enthusiasm of old oars never lags, he "went down to the Lake to see what was going on." Somehow or other—how or why he is not certain—he wound up as a volunteer coach. At the close of his first year as a Princetonian, Sueltz, a native of South Dakota and a since-childhood resident of California, was asked to take over the 150-pound squads.

In 1952, his first spring as a salaried member of the coaching fraternity, the shy, soft-spoken "rookie" developed an all-winning freshman squad, six of whom were to move up to this year's varsity. He will discuss "toughness," "the will to work" and other human qualities in analyzing his crews' successes, but there will be no mention of coaching techniques, or of the fact that only one man in the championship 1953 boat had ever rowed before entering Princeton. His talk now—with graduation a fortnight away—is of the future and of his new duties as an assistant minister in a California city in which rowing is probably known as a beneficial form of exercise confined to the lake-in-the-park.

For personifying those qualities of leadership that are traditionally associated with the Church: for looking forward to devoting his life to the service of others; for being among the first to insist that sport in any form is only a means to an end, and never an end in itself; he is the Editors' nominee for

The Public's Opinion. Public meetings have been set for Monday, June 1, and Monday, June 8, to discuss the plan for proposed merger of Princeton borough and township. It will be made public next week by the Joint Consolidation Committee and will appear in TOWN TOPICS.

Residents of both municipalities are invited to express their opinions of the plan at either meeting in the Princeton High School auditorium. They will start at 8 p. m. Those expecting to do so have been asked by the committee to file a brief summary of their views in advance with the committee secretary, Ralph S. Mason, 245 Nassau Street. However, the committee has made it clear that any eligible voter in either municipality may speak at the meetings whether or not such a summary is filed.

Virtually all borough and township officials, as well as a number of representative citizens of the community, have made their views of various topics involved in municipal merger available to the committee at hearings this month. All of the basic problems pursuant to consolidation will be considered in the plan.

Charles T. Cowenhoven, Jr., committee chairman, pointed out this week:

"There will be general discussion at both meetings, for the committee-drafted plan is only a proposal and may be amended. The committee and its staff wil be prepared to answer questions about the plan and to furnish any relevant information."

In addition to publication of the plan in TOWN TOPICS, copies will also be available at Borough and Township Halls by Friday, May 29.

Air Tragedy. For the better part of three years, Princetonians have read with a mixture of enjoyment and pride the feature stories of Bernard Peyton, Jr. in The New York Herald Tribune. On Monday of this week, Mr. Peyton and his mother were key figures in a story with the most tragic implications one that may never be told in full for a mystified and saddened community.

in their twin-engine Beechcraft, they turned back and headed for Long Island over the Sound. Exactly when and why they crashed is still undetermined; death came to Mrs. Peyton from multiple internal injuries, not from drowning, and there is no evidence that they had a chance to don life-preservers with which the plane was equipped.

Forty-eight hours after the plane fell into the waters off Block Island, the search was continued for Mr. Peyton and the pilot, Arthor Muhs of Pennington. Personal effects of Mr. Peyton have been found, but there was no trace of Mr. Muhs. Plane fragments and an oil slick were discovered by searchers Tuesday afternoon.

Twenty-five years old, Mr. Peyton was born here and prepared at Country Day School and Exeter for Princeton, graduating in 1949. He was also a magazine writer, with another Saturday Evening Post story now scheduled to appear post-humously. He is survived by his wife, the former Joan Paton; a son, 3, a daughter, 1; his father, Bernard Peyton, Sr., of Pretty Brook Road; a sister and a brother.

Mrs. Peyton, 57, was the former Kathleen B. Anderson. She earned her pilot's license at the age of 42 and later won a commercial pilot's rating.

In addition to her husband, son and daughter, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. David Winans of Mountain Avenue. A memorial service will be held this Thursday at 4:30 at Trinity Episcopal Church.

Festival Schedule. Details have been completed for the annual Talbott Festival sponsored by the Westminster Choir College. The program will open next Tuesday and run through Memorial Day, being climaxed by the annual Festival of Massed Choirs at University Field.

Public attendance at the various concerts, recitals and dramatic events is possible upon payment of a $2 registration fee for the entire week. This may be paid at the Choir College or at the McCarter Theatre box office.

Among the outstanding events will be "The Magnificat" by J. S. Bach and "Theresa Mass" by F. J. Haydn in Westminster Chapel Tuesday evening at 8:30; a concert in the chapel at 3 on Wednesday by the Columbus Boychoir, with Herbert Huffman conducting; "The Requiem" by Mozart with orchestra and chorus conducted by Nicholas Harsanyi in McCarter Theatre, on Wednesday at 8:30 p. m.; and "The Westminster Choir Past, Present and Future" in a concert in McCarter directed by Dr. John F. Williamson, college president.

Other features will be a freshman choir concert directed by Harold Hedgpeth; a recital by Dr. Alexander McCurdy, organist; Flora Greenwood, harpist; Janice Harsanyi, soprano; and Nicolas Harsanyi, violinist; and the festival play, John Patrick's "The Curious Savage," directed by Delight Williamson Holt. A full schedule of events may be obtained from the Choir College.

Israel Bond Rally. James G. McDonald, first ambassador from this country to Israel, will be the guest Tuesday night at a reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Abrams of Armour Road. Dr. Abrams is chairman of the Princeton Committee for State of Israel Bonds.

Mr. McDonald, who has recently returned from a tour of Israel, will report at the reception on conditions in that country, as well as on political developments in the Middle East. His appearance here will climax the drive on behalf of Israel's Independence Bond Issue.

Ballot Honored. Directors of the Jewish Center of Princeton paid tribute at the annual meeting to Harry Ballot (owner of the men's apparel store bearing his name) for "unusual services to the Jewish Community of Princeton in general, and the Jewish Center of Princeton in particular." He received a scroll "as an expression of esteem and gratitude for his loyalty, his constant encourage-

It's New to Us

Who Loves Lucy? Everybody. At least, the Bernat yarn people hope so. They have assembled the I Love Lucy Pak, with which you can make a carriage cover, sacque or bonnet or bootie, depending upon the Pak you choose. All these at The Knitting Shop, 8 Tulane.

To make a carriage cover you need four packs at $1.49 a pack. This will make a blanket 32 x 43 inches. For a big one, 43 x 64, you will need eight packs.

The secque pacque (excuse us) the sacque pack includes ribbon for beading, and costs $1.98. The bonnet and bootee pack, also with ribbon, is $1.19. You can crochet or knit these depending on your fancy and your talent. Colors are the usual infant pastels.

The latched rugs we told you about some time ago are out again with new patterns. These are somewhat more modern in design, including an abstract that looks like matchsticks (imagine! an abstract hooked rug. What would grandma say?).

There is also an octagon design, and a handsome foliage pattern. Another one focuses on a teddy bear eating from a honey pot. And there is a series of rugs with a transportation theme, to make for the treads of your stairway: car, plane, ship, train, then you begin all over again, and so on till the top of the stairs. All these rugs are about $25, according to the way you decide to make them: with a fluffy pile or a flat no-pile.

French yarn in this shop—almost as soft as cashmere, but not so much hard cash: 75c an ounce. And Jaeger yarn from England for the same price.

A Wunderbar Autobar. Hang this aluminum bar across the back in your car, and you can carry 26 garments wherever you go. Fits any car, and if your model doesn't have hooks at each side, use the ones that come with the Autobar. Buy one at the Turney Motor Company, 255 Nassau.

This bar goes, as we say, from rear door to rear door, mut it won't interfere with the opening of the door. Beside, you can put one up in a minute without tools. There are rubber rings at intervals to keep hangers from slipping. Whole thing costs $3.95.

Leather Done by Hand. Last summer we described for you the leather belts made by Lee Willis, Smith '55, and sold at The Joan Shop, 63 Palmer Square West. Miss Willis has added leather handbags to this handsome collection, and you may place orders for either the belts or the bags beginning the last week in May. When finals are over, Miss Willis will be back to take up her tools and your order.

As you recall, she has a line of classic belts, some with a flourish like double buckles, or a gently scalloped edge or a small belt on top of a big belt that gets very big indeed in front. You may order these in black, brown (a mahogany), natural, navy, green, cordovan.

Bags can be simple pouches, "feed-bags" or whatever other style you like. If you've just had a suit made, she will talk with you about combining fabric and leather in a very special bag. Prices here are about $10 for a simply stitched bag, or about $25 for one made of leather and fabric. Belts begin at $4.50 and go up to about $11 for a big fat one.

Somewhere in your attic you may turn up an old fob or an old

Hun Awards Scholarships. Gordon Parker, a pupil at the Witherspoon School, has been awarded the Hun Memorial Scholarship, Dr. Paul R. Cheseboro, headmaster, has announced. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Parker of 151 Patton Avenue.

The Kuschke Memorial Scholarship went to Ray W. Miller, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Washington Road, Penns Neck. He is a student at St. Paul's. Both boys, 13 years of age, will receive four full years' tuition at Hun.

The school's annual Alumni Day will be observed Saturday, the program beginning with a luncheon at 12:30. Lewis Elverson, former University of Pennsylvania athlete, will serve as master of ceremonies and Robert Lechner, a trustee of the school, will be the guest speaker.

The County's Problem. In response to the letter written to TOWN TOPICS last week by Edwin T. Goodridge, commenting on the serious traffic hazard created by the badly-planned intersection of Rosedale and Elm Roads, Mayor P. MacKay Sturges has reported that both thoroughfares are maintained by Mercer County. Jurisdiction therefore lies solely with county officials.

Mayor Sturges further comments: "During the last three years, conditions at this intersection have been called to the attention of the proper officials a number of times and, while conferences have been held and suggestions made, nothing has been done except the painting of lines which wear off in a short time."

His final point is a continuing matter of both concern and frustration to the community: "We appreciate the danger existing at this intersection and are fearful of a serious accident happening at some time, but just as is the case with speed limits established by the state on state highways within the borough limits, local officials have no control over county roads running within borough limits."

Their appearance, together with talks on interplanetary space travel and motion pictures on rockets and guided missiles, will be a feature of the Princeton Country Day School fair. Hours are 1:30 to 6 at the school grounds, Broadmead; carnival attractions in a wide variety are planned to tempt and amuse all ages.

Aid Committee Honored. The Hospital Aid Committee, which reported a net of $2,350 from its spring rummage sale, has now passed the $150,000 mark in funds raised on behalf of Princeton Hospital. To mark the occasion, and the 35th anniversary of the committee's founding, a reception honoring committee members was held in Lambert House, the Nurses' home.

Charter members of the group which organized in 1918 who were present last week were Mrs. Charles Parsons, Mrs. Clarence Tilton and Mrs. Edward G. Spaulding. Other surviving members who could not be present include Miss Elsie Croll, Mrs. Caspar Goodrich, Mrs. William Matthews, Mrs. Butler Murray, Mrs. Henry Covington, Mrs. Frank Constant, Mrs. John Poe, Miss Sarah Priest, Mrs. Chalfant Robinson, Mrs. Henry Sayen, Mrs. Charles Worden and Mrs. John Van Nest.

The original group of 21 also included the late Mrs. Frederick Hutson, Mrs. John Lyons, Mrs. Fred Neher, Mrs. Edward Robbins, Mrs. Henry Thompson, Mrs. John Stayback and Mrs. George Wintringer.

Mrs. Edward G. Spaulding was the first chairman, serving for 21 years and in 1939 was elected honorary chairman for life. Her successors have been Mrs. T. Hart Anderson, Jr., Mrs. Edgar S. Smith, Mrs. George Stoess, Mrs. Wendell Carlson and Mrs. Frank Eidmann.

Hospital trustees and members of the administrative staff, borough and township officials were among those present on the occasion. Mayor Sturges spoke briefly, while telegrams of congratulations were read from President Dodds, Congressman Howell and Senator Smith.

Health Council Formed. Seventy-five Mercer County residents, meeting in Lawrence Township last week, voted to form a Citizens' Health Council for this county. Dr. DeWitt H. Smith of Princeton has been named temporary chairman; Theodore Vreeland, who acted as secretary of the steering committee, will serve as chairman of the committee assigned to write the organization's by-laws.

Improvement of health conditions in this and other county communities is the council's principal aim. It will undertake to review the public health problems as a whole and committees will work on specific problems, such as that of tuberculosis. Several other such groups already exist in New Jersey, while throughout the nation there are some 2,000. Sponsoring groups here include the Council of Community Services, the High School Lay Council and the League of Women Voters.

CERTAINLY, the Hudson Hornet is a lovely car to look at—gorgeous inside and out. And its beauty is more than skin deep.

This rugged performer holds the stock-car championship in all three major racing associations—and a touch of your toe to the gas pedal will tell you why!

The Hornet's dazzling performance comes from Hudson's sturdy, long-lasting, high-compression engine; and from the fact that it has the lowest center of gravity among American cars—because of exclusive "step-down" design. Why don't you visit us and try a Hudson Hornet?

cus will make its annual Princeton appearance next Thursday, May 28, staging matinee and evening performances at the Witherspoon Street grounds under sponsorship of the Lions Club. The well-known trope is now in its 62d year of entertainment.

Among the attractions will be the seven trained elephants which have performed on television during the past winter, including Rahnee ("Slow Poke") presented by Miss Marsha Hunt, billed as the world's youngest elephant trainer; the Riding Conleys, seven bareback riders (see picture, page 1); trapeze acts, trained sea lions, dogs and ponies, six Palomino horses, clowns, a rodeo act and "Butch," a large trained Brahma bull.

Group Arts Dinner. Princeton Group Arts will hold its second annual membership dinner next Thursday, May 28, at 6:30. It will take place at the Witherspoon YMCA with Professor Alan Downer of the Department of English at Princeton University as the speaker of the evening. Officers for the coming year will be elected.

Group Arts, now in its eighth year, is a non-profit organization formed to add to the community's social and creative opportunities. Since its origin, hundreds of Princetonians from "toddlers" to adults have joined its many workshops, carried on in painting, sculpture, ceramics and other crafts during an average ten-hour day.

Problems constantly facing Group Arts include the lack of space in its Spring Street headquarters, the increasing cost of art supplies and equipment, and a growing scholarship budget to aid those who would not otherwise be able to enroll in its program. Tickets for the dinner are available from 14 Spring Street through Tuesday; contributions in support of the organization will be particularly welcome at this time.

Needlework Guild Elects. Mrs. Alfred Baird has been elected president of the Princeton chapter of the Needlework Guild of America, succeeding Mrs. Edward L. Howe. Other new officers are Mrs. Walter Fullam, Miss Elizabeth MacLaren and Mrs. Howard Waxwood, vice-presidents; Mrs. E. Reeves Black, secretary; Mrs. Chandler Wentworth, assistant secretary; Mrs. William Mather, treasurer; Mrs. Luther Eisenhart, Mrs. Lloyd Grover and Miss Sarah M. Hodge, advisory committee.

Mrs. Eisenhart was hostess to new and retiring officers at her home on Alexander Street last week. In addition to Mrs. Howe, those who have served during the past year are Mrs. Frank Niles, Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. William Tucker and Mrs. O. H. Hubbard, vice-presidents; Mrs. Matthew Fleming, Jr., secretary; Mrs. Louis West, assistant secretary; Mrs. George Wintringer, treasurer.

The Princeton chapter, now 60 years old, was organized by Mrs. S. W. Stockton, to collect new articles of clothing and distribute them among charitable institutions. Princeton agencies which benefit today are the Social Service Bureau, Princeton Nursery School, Princeton Hospital, Welfare Department and church organizations.

Playground Plans. Robert Sinkler, Charles Davis, Radcliffe Daly and William Hunter have been named playground directors for the 1953 season, which will open June 29. Assistants named this week by Mrs. Charles W. Link, personnel chairman for the committee, include Mrs. Anna Lanahnn, Mrs. Mabel Davis and Mrs. Robert Richardson.

Miss Jessie Hurd, Mrs. Mary Moss and Miss Mary Ann Church will supervise the wading pools, while others who will assist in various capacities are Mrs. Shepard Kimberly, Miss Beatrice Brunswick, and Ellis Willard. The entire program will again be directed by C. Edward Christian.

New members of the playgrounds committee are Mrs. Kimberly, Mrs. A. L. Randall, John R. Arscott, Robert D. McCarthy and Edward Giolito. Joseph W. Miller, Jr. is its president.

Miscellany. Ignoring a speeding summons can be costly, as a Pennsylvania resident learned Tuesday from Magistrate Paul R. Chesebro. When he repeatedly failed to come to court, his license was revoked; when he came in under arrest this week and it was proved he had continued to drive after the revocation, his fines totalled $125.

Others fined were William H. Smith, 14 Green Street, speeding; Frank A Pinelli, 76 Leigh Avenue, careless driving; Antony Lucarelli, and William Bovino, 36 Leigh Avenue, registration not in possession; James A. Rowan, Rosedale Road, driver's license not in possession.

Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dicke, 37 Jefferson Road; Mr. and Mrs. John F. Petrone, Ewing Street; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Vreeland, 17 Aiken Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Suetz, 100 Stockton Street; daughters to Mr. and Mrs. James B. Smith, Wheatsheaf Road; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Alson, 438 Nassau Street; Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Sutphin, Rocky Hill.

The Kingston Presbyterian Church will hold its annual spring supper this Saturday at 5. A committee of the Ladies Auxiliary is in charge.

Princeton Post No. 76, American Legion, will hold its ahnual Ladies Night Saturday at post headquarters, 55 Mercer Street. A buffet supper and dancing are on the program, with tickets available through the committee chairman, Marino Feruggia.

Charles W. Robinson Post No. 218 will hold its annual meeting Tuesday at the Elks Home on Birch Avenue. Officers will be nominated for the coming year. The post will join in the annual Memorial Day parade, forming at its headquarters that morning at 9 o'clock.

The Dinner Club of Nassau Lodge No. 106, IOOF, will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday night at St. Paul's Methodist Church, West State Street, Trenton. Reservations for the turkey dinner at $1.50 may be made through the president, William H. Coffey, before Monday.

At the lodge's last meeting, the Grand Lodge Degree was conferred on Past Noble Grands Henry Wheeler, Earl Wilbur, Walter Bas-

Sports in Princeton

Secret Play. Arch Murray, New York sports writer and inveterate Princeton fan, will tell you his telephone number is "Butterfield 8-Glass-Frye." Arch says he can't remember the number itself, but if he thinks of the numbers Brad Glass and Dick Frye wore last fall, he knows people can reach him by calling "Butterfield 8-7846."

School Sports. Princeton High School's track team went into Wednesday's meet against Somerville with a victory streak of 36 for two basic reasons: over the years, its members have thoroughly enjoyed participation in the sport and they have gained expert instruction at an early age.

Last Saturday at Englewood, for example, two PHS entrants in the novice section of a large invitation meet won their events. Allen Graham took the 120-yard high hurdles in a promising 16 seconds, while Bob Taylor won the 100-yard dash in 13.3 seconds.

Coaches Irwin Weiss and Win Niles run a "farm system" of their own, bringing the younger boys along steadily so that replacements will be available when the seniors graduate. The Blue and White streak stretches back over six years, and neither Somerville, Pennington Prep nor larger Trenton Catholic figured to snap it before the season ends.

Hamilton High School's baseball team took a close, 3-2 decision from the Blue and White Monday, rallying for two runs in the seventh. Dave Maas was the losing hurler, having the misfortune to be tagged for a triple that did the damage after two were out in the top of the final round.

Lawrenceville also won a close battle from Princeton High last week, breaking away from a 3-3 deadlock in the last of the eighth to win, 6-3. The Red and Black's ace, Charlie Heppenstall, gained the victory in relief; Maas was the loser.

Coach Morrill Shepard's nine took a 2-0 lead in the opening round

For Other Sports

when Bob Stewart's double drove Bob Bosley and Keith Wallace across. Lawrenceville got one back in the third and after the losers added one in the fifth, tied the count in that round with another pair. Stewart's single, double and three rbi's paced the Blue and White attack.

Hun School could not match Trenton High's slugging Monday, the victors walking off with a 12-1 triumph to hand the Edgerstoune nine its tenth defeat against a lone victory. Trenton chalked up its eighth straight, led by center fielder Frank Corrado's four hits in five times at bat and eight runs driven in. One of his blows was a grand slam.

Vic Perone, captain-elect of Hun School's football team, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Perone of Ewing Street, not the Joseph Perones, as reported last week. The Red and Black's 1952 eleven was voted Mercer County's "most improved team," winning the Trenton Rutgers Club award for its achievement.

Obituaries

Thomas E. Murray, 89, of 99 Spruce Street, died May 15 at Princeton Hospital. A retired Princeton University employee, he had been superintendent of grounds for 30 years before his retirement. A member of Princeton Engine Co. No. 1 since 1891, he was its oldest member. A funeral at the Ralph E. Kimble Home and a service at St. Paul's Church were followed by interment in the parish cemetery.

News of the Theatres

Concert Preview. The Princeton University Concerts committee has announced that subscriptions are now being taken for Series One and Two for 1953-54. For full ticket information and dates of the concerts, clip out the advertisement on page 11.

The University Concerts are now in their 60th year, and once again a remarkable set of programs has been scheduled for McCarter performance by a wide variety of artists.

Series One will open with the Virtuosi di Roma, a chamber orchestra of thirteen performers devoted to the interpretation of early Italian music, generally of the 17th and 18th centuries. The young Viennese pianist Paul Badura-Skoda will give the second concert of the series.

Once again the great Cleveland Orchestra, George Szell conducting, will return for a performance, and the series will close with the Bach Aria Group, with William H. Scheide as director. Among the noted artists in the group are Eileen Farrell and Jan Peerce.

Pro Musica Antiqua, the remarkable group devoted to the study and performance of mediaeval and renaissance music, will open Series Two. The group consists of five vocalists and a sextet of early instruments including three viols, minstrel's harp, lute and recorder.

Concerts by the Italian Quartet and the Hungarian Quartet, two of the most widely acclaimed European quartets of recent years, will be followed by performances by the Philadelphia Woodwind Quintet and the New Music Quartet, American groups both organized three years ago.

The committee for the concerts includes Mrs. Charles G. Osgood, Mrs. Bradford B. Locke, Mrs. Harold W. Dodds, Mrs. McClintock Ellis, Mrs. Walter Lowrie, Mrs. Ernest G. Weaver, Mrs. Wilbur M.

THE PLAYHOUSE

By the Light of the Silvery Moon (Thurs.-Sat.) follows the unassuming formula of its direct predecessor, "On Moonlight Bay." Same Booth Tarkington small-town characters. Same Doris Day and Gordon MacRae crooning old favorites. Same sentimental corn. Technicolor, of course.

Titanic (Sun.-Tues.) records with great authenticity the tragic sinking of the luxury liner on its maiden voyage and focuses on the drama as it affects a handful of people. Clifton Webb and Barbara Stanwyck are involved in a marital conflict, but the real star is probably the scene of the ship smashing into the iceberg.

The Greatest Show on Earth (Wed.-Sat.) returns for an engagement at regular prices with the Academy Award in tow, mostly as a tribute to its box office power. Because of the length (153 mins.) of the Cecil B. DeMille Technicolor spectacle, the timeable of showings will be: matinee at 2:30, evenings at 6:30 and 9:10.

It's a huge and sprawling melodrama filled not only with the magic of a circus performance, but also with behind-the-scenes conflict. The staggering collection of stars includes Betty Hutton, James Stewart, Charlton Heston, Gloria Grahame, Cornel Wilde, Dorothy Lamour and the big plus of Emmett Kelly, the great clown, and other Ringling Bros.-Barnum and Bailey performers.

THE GARDEN

Desert Legion (Fri.-Sat.) is elaborate, mildly interesting and absolutely standard stuff about Legionnaire (Alan Ladd) who finds adventure and a beautiful princess (Arlene Dahl) in fabulous mountain kingdom. Richard Conte as the villain and a number of dancing girls are also featured. Technicolor.

Tobacco Road (Mon.-Tues.), the 1941 film version of the play, is being revived. Emphasizing the plight of the landless Southern farmer, the film is well acted by Charles Grapewin, Marjorie Rambeau, Dana Andrews and Gene Tierney.

Kind Hearts and Coronets (Wed.-Thurs.) is in the running for the honors as all-time champ of British satirical comedy. The droll Alec Guinness plays eight parts to ring up a classic performance. Dennis Price, Valerie Hobson and Joan Greenwood also lend expert comic ability to this story of a young man who cheerfully eliminates the obstacles to his fame and fortune (all of 'em Guinness). Don't miss it.

The Girls of Pleasure Island (Fri.-Sat.) is a mild little thing about the wholesale courtship of three British girls on a Pacific isle by 1,500 Marines. Don Taylor, Leo Genn, Elsa Lanchester and three newcomers as the girls generate a pleasant enough bit of Technicolor entertainment.

LIGHTWEIGHT CREW HITS THE JACKPOT: TIGER 150's WIN EASTERN TITLE AND SET CARNEGIE COURSE RECORD

Princeton's 150-lb. crew crossing the finish line Saturday to win the Eastern championship. Yale was second, M.I.T. third, Harvard (not in picture), fourth. Time of 6:40.5 broke 11-year-old course record for the Henley distance of 1 5/16 miles.

Sports in Princeton

Success Story. Two years ago, most of the members of the current 150-lb. crew had two things in common: they were entered in the same college and they had no idea they were going out for rowing. But today's sophomore-dominated lightweight shell stands at the top of Eastern (and therefore national) rowing—since the sport does not exist in the mid-west and the Pacific Coast for 150-pounders.

From the victory on Carnegie Saturday, they may go on to Henley, England, this summer. It's their right to do so, since defending champion Pennsylvania was dethroned in the qualifying round and the 'fifties are now the ranking American crew. Financially, of course, a few problems remain to be solved.

Despite the afternoon's occasional spatter of rain, a good-sized crowd was on Carnegie's banks to watch the Eastern championships. The morning heats had seen all three Princeton crews win their races; the Tiger freshmen took the first title at 4 when they led Cornell across the line by a quarter-length in one of the day's best races. The fine time of 6:47.7 for the mile and 5/16 was indicative of the caliber of the day's rowing.

Yale's jayvees then prevented a Princeton "sweep of the river," leading the Tigers over the finish by a few feet of open water. Yale, which had won its varsity heat, also figured to be a threat to Princeton in the Joseph Wright Cup race, as did an able M.I.T. entry. Harvard, the fourth qualifier, had lost to Princeton in the morning by a scant half length.

Each of the Tigers' three opponents challenged them down the course, Harvard and then Tech fading before the final quarter mile. Yale kept up the battle, covering the final 400 yards at 38 strokes to the minute.

Princeton, however, went from 36 to 40, and then 41 when it hit the finish line, never breaking form despite the high beat and holding off the Elis to the extent that it won by a full three-quarters of a length. The time of 6:40.5, achieved over fairly calm water but with a cross rather than a following wind, was three-tenths of a second under the best mark for the Henley—set 11 years ago when Princeton won the Wright Cup. The Tigers had also triumphed here in 1948.

It was a solid achievement on the part of all concerned. For the background story, see this week's cover.

32 INNINGS: 1 EARNED RUN

Pitcher Dick Emery

Heavy Crews Beaten. On the Potomac River, Princeton fortunes were almost in reverse proportion to what occurred here. The Tiger freshman eight won its heat in the Eastern Sprint Championships and finished third in the finals, behind Cornell and Harvard.

The junior varsity was fourth in a four-boat heat, failing to qualify, and the varsity was fourth in a six-crew field, the first three of which reached the finals. Don Robinson, number two oar, had gone to the infirmary last Wednesday with a virus and his absence resulted in a shake-up that could not click in such a short time.

Navy won—its 18th victory in a row—and also took the jayvee race to assure retention of the Rowe Cup, which is won on points. Syracuse lies ahead for most of those who rowed at Washington last week, with Princeton's hopes resting on Robinson's return and the possibility that the three-mile distance will be better suited to the rangy Tigers than the short 2,000 meter race.

First Place in Sight. Winning two of its last three games, both victories the result of topflight pitching by sophomore Dick Emery, Princeton's baseball team needs only a triumph over Harvard to finish in a tie for first place in the Eastern League. If Yale can also trim the Crimson, both the Tigers and the Elis will wind up in a 6-2-1 finish with Penn.

Chances of a three-way playoff are small, particularly since the Quaker season ends this Friday. Even before that is achieved, however, Princeton and Yale must reschedule rained out games with Harvard. There is currently a possibility that the Nassau nine will play the Cantabs at New Haven Friday afternoon, June 5, the day before they have a non-league clash there with Yale.

Emery's 1-0 shutout of Penn ranks with any game thrown at University Field in the last decade save Harry Brightman's no-hitter against Fordham. Other Princeton pitchers have hurled shutouts and allowed even less than the four hits charged to the Tiger sophomore, but Emery was working against the league-leaders.

In contrast to the trouble he had at New Haven, when he hit one batter and walked 11, he gave up only two passes and was always in control. So much so that when he had been rapped for a lead-off triple in the fourth, he snared the runner going for home on an attempted squeeze with a high pitch tight under the wrists.

The batter never had a chance to bunt and the runner was out by ten feet. The home forces' lone tally in the fifth stood up and Emery had his second whitewash over the Quakers, his second in a row this month and 23 straight scoreless innings.

Trouble was almost sure to occur at Hanover, because Al Bryant had had so little work. Five innings this month and never a startling assignment until he became a Need Another Tractor?

If you're watching the weeds grow in the corn when the haying can't wait—worrying about planting when there's still more plowing and harrowing—or wishing the manure would haul itself when the big tractor's busy... you need another tractor.
With a Farmall Cub, you can plant, cultivate, or mow 12 acres a day... rake at 3 miles an hour... haul faster than a team. And you can spray, pump, run an elevator, plow snow, saw wood, shell corn, grind feed... a hundred other jobs too small for the big tractor.
Come in and see the Farmall Cub. It may be just what you need.

John Conroy, Princeton University tennis coach, shows his daughter, Linda; Douglas Rohrer; another daughter, Dana; and Toni Lees one of the fundamentals of the game. Under his guidance, Princeton has just completed an unprecedented fourth straight sweep of honors in the Eastern Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

senior were largely responsible for the fact that the Indians hopped on him for four runs in the first inning.

That more than offset the two Princeton had garnered to open the game. Dartmouth added two more in the fourth off Joe Castle, and a Princeton rally in the ninth was productive of only one run for a 6-3 defeat. With two out and men on second and third, Dick Savage drew a walk but Pete Millard trotted home from third in the belief that he was forced and proved an easy out to end the game.

Emery's streak of scoreless innings ended at 25 but only one of the tallies Cornell scored in its 7-3 loss was earned, giving the Tiger righthander a record of one earned run in the last 32 innings he has pitched. He hurled hitless and runless ball for the last seven rounds at Ithaca.

The Tigers moved into a 1-0 lead in the first when Joe Golden tripled and scored on a wild pitch but the Red took a 3-1 advantage in the second. At that, Emery might have been out of the inning free had not Hank Thomay thrown a double play ball into the dirt with the bases filled.

Two in the fourth—the tying run scoring when Dick Savage worked the squeeze — brought Princeton even again. Easton's long fly scored the tie-breaking marker in the fifth and his solid double in the seventh chased in two more.

Villanova this Saturday at 2:30 and Rutgers on Memorial Day are the next two clashes. The latter contest will be a home-coming affair for the Scarlet at New Brunswick.

Tennis Team Wins. The first title of the 1953 spring season to come Princeton's way is a familiar one. It's the Eastern Tennis Association championship, which the Tigers have now held four years running, a feat no other college has achieved.

Coach John Conroy's forces edged Yale by a lone point last week (after losing four of the first six singles matches) to rank as the only unbeaten team in the circuit. The match against Dartmouth was rained out at Hanover Friday and the engagement with the West Side Tennis Club was cancelled for lack of opposition on Saturday. The resultant 6-1 record was the smallest number of matches Princeton has played in many seasons, but despite the end of the string of 41 victories through the loss to North Carolina, retention of the Eastern title made the season a major success.

Lacrosse Team Trips Army. Princeton's lacrosse team must wait until Saturday to learn whether it wins the national title. If Navy trims Army at Annapolis, the championship goes to the Tigers; if not, as Coach Ferris Thomsen says, "at least we beat the champs."

His outfit did just that at West Point Saturday, overcoming an early 2-1 deficit, taking a 4-3 lead soon after the second period had started and never being headed thereafter. Bo Willis scored four times and Al Weaver three, with Cy Horine making 26 saves in the goal, a number of them quite spectacular.

Army was unbeaten, and has

Summer Tickets. Subscription and single tickets sales will be under way by next week at all three of the Princeton area summer theatres. The box office of the Bucks County Playhouse in New Hope opens on Monday with part and full season subscriptions available for the scheduled 14 weeks.

In keeping with summer stock tradition the University Players, who will operate here at the Murray Theatre, have announced a low price scale of $1.50 and $1.80 for weekdays and $1.80 and $2.00 for Friday and Saturday. Six week subscriptions at $9 for any day or location can be ordered now at the University Store (tel. 3333) and later at the Players' box office.

St. John Terrell's Music Circus at Lambertville has announced 13-show subscriptions at a 15 per cent discount and 7-show subscriptions (either first seven shows or last seven) at a 10 per cent discount. Prices vary according to location and day of week. The telephone is Lambertville 695.

played more Class A teams than Princeton. The Tigers have lost only to Johns Hopkins in intercollegiate competition, but unless Navy can torpedo the cadets, the point-scoring system in effect will give Army the title. It was, incidentally, devised by a committee headed by Ferris Thomsen.

Taylor and Maxwell Win. Buzz Taylor set a Heptagonal Games record in the broad jump at New Haven Saturday, leaping 24 feet, 8 7/8 inches. The only one of five competing champions to repeat, his performance broke a 13-year old mark.

Tohey Maxwell took the two-mile in 9:36, winning by 15 yards. However, Len Lyons failed to retain his shot-put title and the team could do no better than seventh in a ten-entry field.

Cousins Starts Fast. Cousins Company moved into the American League lead in softball play sponsored by the Eagles last week. The victors staged a six-run fourth and stayed off a last-ditch rally by the Sportsmen's Club to take an 11-10 drama. Lanahan was the winning pitcher, Nini the loser.

Other winners were the Eagles, who racked up seven in the fifth at the expense of the Ex-Stars to register a 10-5 triumph; and Teagues Stars, who rallied for three in the seventh to nip Gallup and Robinson, 9-8. Home runs in these contests included one by Tom Smith for the victorious Teagues, and a grand-slammer by Carnevale for the losing Ex-Stars.

Thus the standings at the beginning of the week were Cousins, 2-0; Sportsmen, Gallup & Robinson, Teagues, Eagles, all 1-1; and Ex-Stars, 0-2. Games are played Monday and Wednesday nights on the high school, Country Day and Laughlin fields.

McCreedy in Form. Nassau Social Club, Artistic Clippers and ETS were first-day winners in the National League, which plays each Tuesday. Huck McCreedy threw a 16-0 shutout against Company L of the National League, holding the losers to a single hit.

Artistic Clippers pounded World Federalist pitching for five home runs and weighed in with errorless ball to rack up an 11-1 triumph. Meanwhile, two runs in the sixth and two more in the seventh brought ETS from behind in its contest with RCA. It was a 5-4 final.

Ginny Mershon Wins. Kings Inn, scourge of the Girls' League for the past three seasons, blasted the Princeton Recreation Center, 12-1, in the opener in this circuit. Ginny Mershon was touched for a lone hit as she resumed her pitching chores in mid-season form.

Swinnerton's edged Peresett Appliance in the other girls' game, taking a pitchers' duel between Alice Keuinji and Flo Anderson, 3-2. The victors made only three hits and committed five errors but squelched a sixth inning rally by Peresett to nail down the victory. The Girls' League plays each Thursday night on the high school and Olden Street fields.

The New Jersey Poll

JOB PRESIDENT HAS DONE WINS BACKING OF 8 IN 10; DEMOCRATIC SUPPORT HIGH

President Eisenhower's popularity with voters across the state has taken an upward turn over the past 11 weeks.

On March 5, the New Jersey Poll reported that 68% of the statewide cross-section polled approved of the way Mr. Eisenhower was handling his job. Today, 80% say they approve of the kind of job the President is doing in the White House—a jump of 12 percentage points.

Only eight in 100 say they disapprove of the job Mr. Eisenhower is doing as the nation's chief executive. At the same time, 12 in each 100 interviewed expressed no opinion.

In other words, those who today approve of the way the President is handling his duties outnumber by a margin of exactly 10 to 1 those who disapprove.

When New Jersey Poll staff reporters asked an accurate cross-section of the state's voters:

"Do you approve or disapprove of the way Eisenhower is handling his job as President?"

These were the results:

Approve	80%
Disapprove	8
No opinion	12

Eleven weeks ago, the vote was 68% approval; 5% disapproval; and 27% no opinion.

On the question of the kind of job the President is doing, Independents throughout the state by a margin of more than 11 to 1 express approval of the way President Eisenhower is handling his job.

Here's how Independents voted in today's survey:

Approve	81%
Disapprove	7
No opinion	12

Among rank and file Democratic Party members questioned in today's statewide survey, those expressing approval outnumber by a margin of more than 4 to 1 those expressing disapproval.

Approve	65%
Disapprove	15
No opinion	20

And among the state's GOP members, those expressing approval outnumber by a margin of 46 to 1 those expressing disapproval.

Approve	93%
Disapprove	2
No opinion	5

Survey results also show that more than three out of every five in each segment of the state's population examined say they approve of the way Mr. Eisenhower is doing his job. These groups include people in all age and educational levels, city sizes, occupations, and political parties.

Today's results do not necessarily mean that 80% of the state's citizens would vote for President Eisenhower if an election were held today. (He received 56.8% of the total state vote in the Eisenhower-Stevenson New Jersey election in November, 1952.)

They do, however, mean that the rank and file of voters across the state presently approve of the man they elected to the nation's highest office on Election Day, November 4, 1952.

Urban Housing Shortage Seen. More than one out of every two adult residents of the state say there is a housing shortage in their own communities at the present time.

Two out of every five, however, say there is no shortage.

In other words, New Jersey adults who are of the opinion that there is a housing shortage in their own communities outnumber by a margin of five to four those who say that no shortage exists.

These were the findings when New Jersey staff reporters in a survey just completed personally asked a representative cross-section of the state's residents:

"Would you say that there is a housing shortage in your own community at the present time or not?"

Yes, shortage exists	54%
No shortage exists	39
No opinion	7

Survey findings show that the bigger the community people live in, the more likely they are to feel that a housing shortage exists.

For example, only 31 in each 100 rural area dwellers throughout the state say there is a housing shortage; whereas seven out of every ten big city dwellers (residents of Newark, Trenton, Elizabeth, Camden, Paterson, and Jersey City—each with more than 100,000 people) are of the opinion that there's a housing shortage in the state's biggest cities. (These six big cities comprise 25.7% of the state's population.)

The vote by size of community:

	Rural Areas	2,500-24,999	25,000-99,999	100,000 & Over
Yes	31%	49%	62%	70%
No	58	46	31	24
No op.	11	5	7	6

Worthy of particular note, too, is that among home renters across the state those who say there is a housing shortage outnumber by more than 2½ to 1 those who say there is no housing shortage in their own communities.

On the other hand, among home owners in the state, those who say there is no shortage outnumber by a margin of 5 to 4 those who say there is a housing shortage.

Here's the way home owners and home renters in the state size up the housing situation at the present time:

	Owners	Renters
Yes	69%	40%
No	26	51
No opinion	5	9

Survey results also show that more than one out of every two in all age and occupational groups (farmers excepted) are of the opinion that there is a housing shortage in their own communities.

SPORTS IN PRINCETON

Midgets in Action. At the end of the first three weeks' play in the YMCA Midget League, the Yankees were setting the pace in the American League and the Giants in the National. Contrary to the major circuits, however, Princetonians are assured of a "subway series" no matter who comes out on top.

Games are played nightly at 6:15, with the full schedule available from the YMCA or Town Topics. The standings as of May 16, with the teams' sponsors:

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
Yankees (Hulit's)	4	0	1.000
Indians (Heyden)	3	1	.750
Red Sox (Town Topics)	2	1	.667
Tigers (Lions Club)	2	1	.667
Athletics (Farr)	1	4	.250

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Giants (Gerber)	4	1	.800
Pirates (Walker-Gordon)	3	2	.600
Dodgers (Rotary)	1	3	.250

buckle, and if you do—that's the kind of work Miss Willis likes best to do. She'll talk over pattern and design with you, and work out a belt exactly suited to the piece you have found.

Texture in Textile. At the shop of Elise Goupil, 217 Nassau, we found the third dimension all over the place. Rhinestones, for example, on a sheath of cotton lace. White flocking and daisies with rhinestones centers on denim—these daisies are practically real; an inquisitive two-year-old could probably pull them off. And black sateen embroidered with pink and blue ovals.

This one is simple as a child's pinafore: sleeveless, V-necked with no belt. There's a separate skirt like it, and you can have your sateen in white or well as black.

In half-sizes for the mature figure, we found sheers like the matelasse organdy with narrow red piping, and the grey-blue with a soft white stripe.

For Reunion Weekend, why not a sleeveless striped seersucker in black and orange? Or, one of the plainest, best-looking dresses you could imagine: a white one with self-striping, short sleeves, round collar, slightly full skirt.

Looking for a halter? This one is white cotton - very fine - with red bands widely spaced around the skirt. Its halter neckline can he discreetly covered with a short jacket. Price tag here says $14.95.

Back on the sheer rack, look at the cotton with white dots, like dotted swiss seen through a magnifying glass. And why not matelasse organdy in pale, dusty rose, touched up with pale blue and white, with a belt in the same blue? Cool as a delphinium.

Blow the Man Down. You won't find the men in matelasse organdy, not this year, anyhow. But we saw a summer shirt at Lahey's, 150 Nassau, that looks sheer enough to be fine batiste. It's a Jayson with short or long sleeves. Other Jaysons include a featherweight gabardine that comes in five colors. (Not all in one shirt, however.)

Arrow turns out some gingham sports shirts in a fine check. They are blue, green or brown with button-down collars. We liked the houndstooth check shirts in the same shades—a very small hound, this. These Arrow shirts have something called a built-in fold line at the collar that's supposed to make the whole thing better. Swim trunks by BVD have a pleasant new tag this year: $4.95 instead of $5.95. In nylon taffeta, these trunks come in dark green, navy, maroon and beige.

"Take Two Eggs . . ." If you're like us, you cook by the book and not by your own ear. A new set of cookbooks is presently coming from WNBC-WBNT, and they are for sale at Schafer's Market, 350 Nassau.

Each cookbook is 19c. Each week there is a new one. Eventually there will be 24; right now there are about 17. When you get all 24, you can put them into a binder (69c) made of imitation white leather.

There are cookbooks for snacks, dishes for children, meals for two or for small families, and facts about food, in addition to the usual categories like meat, fish, poultry, cookies and gravies. There will even be one divided into 12 monthly sections with day-by-day menus. What'll you have?

YOU CAN SEND TOWN TOPICS anywhere in the U. S. for $1.50 a year. Keep your family and friends informed of Princeton events by giving them a copy 52 weeks in the year. Call 4272
